Great Patience Required.

"Food Prices Break," runs a repeated headline. We hope some time to read it without feeling that the word "consumers" should have been added to make it correct.—Boston Transcript.

The Essential Thing.

"I don't understand a thing about the income tax, do you?" "Yes; I understand that it's got to be paid."—Boston Transcript.

Desirable Accomplishment.

A man in public life should have the wisdom of a serpent—at any rate, he should know how to crawl gracefully when occasion demands.—Boston Transcript.

Preferable.

Says an exchange—"Soon now the grass will grow again, but don't let it be under your feet." Still, say we, better than to have it growing over your head.—Boston Transcript.

Edward Davison, who has been working in Bridgeport, Conn., has returned for an indefinite visit at his home in Barre.

Miss Florence LePage returned this morning from a week-end visit with her aunt, Mrs. M. Haley, in Brookline, Mass.

At St. Monica's church it was announced yesterday that the Lenten 40-hour devotion would begin March 1.

E. L. Freeman of Boston, who has been in the city for the past few days on business, returned to the Massachusetts capital to-day.

Street Superintendent Freeman went Rutland this morning to watch the movement of a 70-ton stone, which is to be set as a monument when 10 tractors will be used to haul the stone.

Max Mann, who came here last week to take examinations to qualify for a civil service position, returned to St. Albans to-day, where he is employed by the Central Vermont railway.

Miss Marion Wiley of Middlebury college visited in the city over the week end. On Saturday morning Miss Wiley was one of the many who took the civil service exams at Spaulding.

Carroll's orchestra consisting of Manager Arthur Carroll, Joseph Barosi, Arthur Spitzer, J. Farrell, Al Messier and Ronald Morgan went to Bethel to-day, where to-night they furnish music for the annual ball of the Bethel American Legion post.

The firemen of Barre station emerged hurriedly this morning about 6 o'clock after someone became alarmed at sparks that were coming from a chimney of the Bolster block on North Main street. An examination with the fire fighting apparatus divulged no serious situation.

Mrs. Maude Paine of Summer street went to Chicago, Ill., the latter part of last week to visit Mrs. Ella Hosmer relative, who with her husband, J. W. Hosmer, suffered serious injuries the night of Jan. 16, when both were struck by an automobile. Mrs. Hosmer died of the injuries and Mrs. Hosmer remains a patient at the Passavant hospital.

Mrs. John W. Gordon of Richardson street and Mrs. A. E. Campbell of North Main street returned last evening from Hanover, N. H., after attending the three-day winter carnival at Dartmouth college. Mrs. Gordon was the guest of her son, Norman, a sophomore of the college, and Mr. Campbell the guest of her son, Laurence, of the junior class.

Anthony Fasola of the Excelsior Granite Co. and Joseph Merlo of Merlo Bros. last evening completed a pleasure journey of several weeks through the West Indies islands and Panama. All the novelties of Cuba, Havana and Jamaica island were at hand for these men during the past month, and while in the Panama canal zone they enjoyed the company of William T. Halvosa, an engineer employed in that country, whose former home was in Barre. Mr. Halvosa accompanied them on a journey through the canal.

An opportunity to see in action one of the fastest basketball teams in the state of Vermont in the Spaulding gymnasium will be the privilege of Barre people next Thursday evening, Feb. 17. At this time the fastest team from Hartford post, No. 26, American Legion, will meet the Barre Legion team on its own floor. Hartford post has a basketball team from which to pick its basketball material as nearly every ex-service man employed by the railroad and running into White River Junction belongs to Hartford post. The Barre team was badly defeated in White River Junction by this team three weeks ago, but the result then gives the criterion for the coming contest as the local post was represented by an almost complete second team. In this game Thursday the best men available from post 10 will be in the game to make it an interesting one for the visitors. Following the game a phonograph dance will be given at the American Legion dance hall. To this everyone attending the game is admitted without charge, otherwise admission as taken at the game will be charged.

Card of Thanks.

We wish to express our sincere appreciation and thanks to the school children, to Gearson & Lane and employees, and to all friends for their many kindnesses during the illness and death of our beloved daughter and sister, and for the beautiful flowers, Mr. and Mrs. Primo Domenicelli and family.

Miss Jessie Muir of Bassett street left for Barton this morning to visit for a week before returning to Hanover, N. H., where she is employed.

Miss Muir recently submitted to an operation for the removal of tonsils.

A. W. Badger & Co.'s ambulance went to Plainfield Center yesterday afternoon and brought back Albert Kahle to the City hospital, ill with pneumonia. Mr. Badger was forced to discard his auto ambulance on the trip and resort to horses on account of the depth of the snow. Much difficulty was encountered even with a sleigh.

Coal gas escaping from the furnace of the Currier block during the night might have proven disastrous to Miss Nettie Lawless, a dressmaker who has apartments in the building, had not Mrs. Bessie Hersey, an assistant, discovered her condition upon reporting for duties this morning at 8 o'clock.

Miss Lawless was then unconscious and was revived only by the combined efforts of Mrs. Hersey and a physician, who was summoned by telephone. At noon to-day she had recovered from the effects but was still confined to her bed.

The frequent escape of coal gas in the building caused Miss Lawless to ignore it this time and during the night she was overcome.

A very badly battered sleigh reposing in the snow on North Main street just south of the intersection of North Seminary and Main streets testifies to the difficulty encountered by Harold Butler and a gentleman friend in a trip from Montpelier to Barre on Saturday evening.

According to Mr. Butler's story, the runner of the sleigh became entangled in the electric car track just the other side of Dodge's bridge on the Montpelier road, and threw the driver and his friend out into the snow. The little black mare became frightened and commenced a dash which did not end until she came to a stop on Blackwell street of this city just beyond where the roadbed passes underneath the Central Vermont tracks. As Mr. Butler tells it, the horse crossed the electric side of the bridge at Dodge's and continued on its way. One or two north-bound cars added to the story in that the terror-stricken animal passed Berlin street running along the car track with an overturned sleigh dragging behind. Evidently the sleigh had become released in some manner near the North Seminary intersection, where it was later found, because at the time the horse came to a stop on Blackwell street, it was devoid of everything but the harness. The runaway was taken to the Papin livery stable, where it was reclaimed later in the evening by Mr. Butler. Besides a battered sleigh consisting of broken runners, shafts, etc., the owner reports a loss of a buffalo robe, whip and halter, which he is anxious to find.

RANDOLPH

The death of Mrs. Emogene Buck last Friday afternoon followed a period of ill health which extended over more than one year, in which time she had been a great sufferer. The cause of her death was pernicious anemia. Mrs. Buck was the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. S. Buck, and was born in the house in which her death occurred 37 years ago the 10th of last June. Here she attended school and nearly all her life was passed in this town. When very young she married Ned C. Buck, who came from Lebanon, N. H., and was associated in business with her father, and since that time they have continued to live here and most of the time in the house in which she was born, from which she was married. Mrs. Buck was an interested member of the order of the Rebekahs, being a past noble grand of Fern Rebekah lodge and held the office of assembly president in the year 1916-1917. This office was filled very efficiently by her and her work won for her much commendation. She was a pleasing officer and one whom it was a pleasure to meet. Mrs. Buck was also a member of Bethany church and faithful to its interests as long as she was able to go out. The deceased is survived by her husband, one daughter, Miss Iris Buck, her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. S. Buck, and two sisters, Mrs. C. C. Clarke of this place and Mrs. Leland Hall of Chicago.

The annual rollcall of the Bethany church was attended on Friday night by about 200 members and friends. At 8:30 there was a fine supper served in the dining room, and the program followed, which consisted first of remarks by the pastor, Rev. Metzger in which he spoke of the work of the church in the last 15 years. Mrs. Brownell followed with a vocal solo, accompanied on the piano by Miss Edith Marcott. The clerk then called the names of the non-resident members, many of whom sent their offering and a letter, the latter being read by friends in the audience. In the absence of the regular soloists, Miss Marcott gave a pleasing piano solo, which all appreciated after which the rollcall was resumed. After the list was completed the audience sang "Rock of Ages," and the reports of the presidents of the different departments of church work were given.

Charles Norton, who has been at the sanatorium since the amputation of his limbs, necessitated by an accident while jumping on the cars, was able to go to his home on Sunday, having made a good recovery.

Mrs. S. W. Howard was stricken with a shock of paralysis on Friday and since that time has been helpless on one side. She is quite comfortable, but has not regained the use of her hand

An Unexpected Reaction.

The teacher was trying to illustrate and bring out the word "perseverance." "Now suppose," she said, "someone were to go on day after day being good, and doing good, despite all temptations and hindrances, what would that be?" A small hand shot up. "Well, Johnny, what would you call it?" "Monotonous," replied the boy.—Boston Transcript.
